12. Read the following statements:
- You have the right to a speedy trial before a jury for the determination of whether you are guilty or not guilty and if you request, to determine sentence. At the trial:
- (1) You have the right to have a lawyer represent you, either one you hire yourself or if you are indigent a court appointed attorney.
 - (2) You are presumed to be innocent of the charges.
 - (3) You may remain silent, or if you choose, you may testify on your own behalf.
 - (4) You have the right to see and hear all witnesses called to testify against you and the right to cross-examine them.
 - (5) You may have your witnesses ordered to appear in court to testify and present evidence of any defense you have to these charges.
 - (6) The state is required to prove your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.
 - (7) The verdict of guilty or not guilty decided by a jury must be unanimous. However, you can waive a jury trial and, if all parties agree, the case could be tried by a Judge alone who would decide if you were guilty or not guilty and if guilty, the appropriate punishment.
