New prices, new opportunities

Thanks to changes allowed by the Postal Act of 2006, USPS can now get a leg up on the competition in the shipping market. For the first time ever, the Postal Service will be offering volume-related prices for Express Mail, Priority Mail and other shipping services starting May 12.

Postal Service products are currently priced using a “one price fits all” approach. That means customers pay the same price per piece regardless of the number of packages they send or the payment system they use.

But beginning May 12 — all that changes. Customers will be able to take advantage of commercial volume pricing, minimum volume rebates, online price breaks and other pricing incentives.

“These innovative pricing incentives will make our products more attractive to all shippers, especially small businesses,” said PMG Jack Potter. “We’re pricing our products to sell in today’s competitive shipping market.”

We all count!

Last summer, more than 19,000 bargaining unit employees from the Southeast New England and Suncoast districts participated in a new survey designed to produce a more detailed picture of the Postal Service’s racial and ethnic makeup.

Following this pilot, Employee Development and Diversity sent the survey to 90,000 non-bargaining employees.

Now, it’s time for the next step. This month, the Postal Service will offer the two-question survey to all bargaining and noncareer employees. Answers to the questions — the first asking employees whether they are “Hispanic or Latino,” and the second asking them to identify their race — will help document the shifting demographics of the federal workforce.

Postal employees who participated in the pilot recorded high response rates. “Our employees were surprised at how easy the survey was,” said Zolfo Springs, FL, Postmaster Gloria Jameson. “They were glad to be able to update their records.”

The survey is required by law, noted Susan LaChance, USPS vice president of Employee Development and Diversity. “The goal of this voluntary survey is to get more accurate race and ethnicity data on all our employees,” she said.

Boxing match

The Postal Service has launched a new, larger Priority Mail box, and it’s already proving to be very popular.

The new Priority Mail Large Flat-Rate Box — its official name — is 50 percent bigger than current boxes. It holds nearly 800 cubic inches. Like other flat-rate products, it gives customers one price — $12.95 to any U.S. destination — while letting them ship more, regardless of weight.

When shipped to an APO/FPO destination, these boxes cost $10.95, a $2 savings. Some of the new boxes feature the logo of America Supports You, a Department of Defense program offering support to military members and their families. Either version of the box is eligible for the discount, as long as it’s sent to an APO/FPO address.

Demand for the military-branded boxes has been higher than anticipated. Nearly 40 percent of the more than 800,000 boxes shipped since Feb. 20 has been cobranded boxes. Post Offices began stocking the larger boxes March 3. Customers can also order them by calling 800-610-8734 or through USPS.com.

A cut above the rest

The Postal Service has an ally in its efforts to get more people to use Express Mail for their expedited shipping needs — Transguardian.com, an online shipping service that offers insurance and security for diamonds and other high-value items.

Transguardian.com President Jim Moseley says his company ships about 100,000 or more high-value packages a day, with about 25 percent of them sent overnight. Moseley lets customers choose their shipping, but he says he “pushes them toward the Postal Service” because of Express Mail’s lower prices and its upfront — no hidden surcharges — pricing.

Moseley says surcharges greatly affect his customers’ costs. “They average anywhere from 10 to 160 percent of the total cost of the shipment,” he said. “We deal in expensive items, and many customers pay extra for a signature certification. Combine that with surcharges for residential delivery, air fuel, Saturday delivery, and Alaska and Hawaii surcharges, and they add up quickly.”

Express Mail doesn't charge extra for any of those options.

Moseley said that online access to Express Mail, coupled with the Transguardian.com online insurance options, has the potential to save his customers hundreds of thousands of dollars each year.

Greener computing

Information Technology (IT) is using leading-edge technology to "go green" at USPS data centers.

During the past three years, IT has rolled out technology that allows multiple applications to run on a single server. This process, called "virtualization," makes the most of the available resources at each server and has allowed IT to eliminate more than 1,600 servers at the Eagan, MN, and San Mateo, CA, data centers.

By replacing outmoded equipment with energy-efficient equipment, USPS has earned rebates of more than $250,000 from power companies. In addition, consolidating servers has saved $2 million in hardware maintenance costs.

Easel pickings

Steph's Folk Art Studio in Smoketown, PA, is more than just another pretty stop on Lancaster Letter Carrier Sue Wolf's route.

Owner Monica Renninger, a former USPS employee, owns the shop. Recently, she handed Wolf and DPMG Patrick Donahoe the Postal Service's 100 millionth Carrier Pickup package.

Lancaster, PA, Letter Carrier Sue Wolf and DPMG Pat Donahoe collect the 100 millionth Carrier Pickup package from Monica Renninger, owner of Steph's Folk Art Studio.

The studio uses Priority Mail for its domestic shipments and uses Priority Mail International to fulfill overseas orders. "We don't miss a stroke when it comes to saving money," says Renninger. "And I can spend more time with my customers because I don't have to take my packages to the Post Office. Carrier Pickup is beautiful."

Donahoe thanked Renninger for her business. "Carrier Pickup continues to be one of the Postal Service's fastest growing online features because customers know it provides great value," he said. "In fiscal year 2007, carriers picked up more than 40 million packages. We're on track to exceed last year's record number, thanks to the convenience of USPS.com and the dedicated service of our letter carriers like Sue Wolf."

Off to a safe start

The latest national figures show USPS dropped its overall Injuries and Illnesses (I&I) by 15.1 percent compared to the same period last year (SPLY). That's 2,166 fewer accidents.

The I&I report also indicates positive safety trends. Handling and lifting accidents decreased 14.7 percent, dog bites fell 6.9 percent, I&I frequency rate went down by 12.9 percent, musculoskeletal injuries plunged 30.7 and those injuries at ergonomic risk reduction process sites dropped 19 percent to SPLY.

In January's I&I report, slips, trips and falls, both on and off premises, grew nationwide. Not this time. Slips, trips and falls on premises decreased 2.9 percent while off premises they lessened by 5.6 percent.

DMM Revision: Documentation for Customized MarketMail and Repositionable Notes

Effective March 13, 2008, the Postal Service™ is revising the Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) to eliminate the requirement that mailers provide samples of Repositionable Notes (RPNs) and Customized MarketMail® (CMM) samples with extra corresponding postage statements to the Pricing and Classification Service Center (PCSC).

Current standards for CMM require that mailers provide a sample of CMM pieces and an extra copy of the corresponding postage statement to the Postal Service to forward to the PCSC. In addition, current standards for RPN require that mailers provide two RPN sample pieces to the PCSC and USPS Engineering Letter Technology.

This revision eliminates the requirement that mailers provide such documentation to the PCSC.

IMM Revision: Bolivia — Service Suspension

Effective March 15, 2008, we are revising Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, International Mail Manual (IMM[®]) to reflect that Priority Mail International[™] parcel service to Bolivia is suspended due to lack of available air transportation.

Until further notice, Post Offices[™] must not accept Priority Mail International parcels destined to Bolivia. This suspension is applicable only to Priority Mail International parcels and does not include the Priority Mail International Flat-Rate Envelope or other international mail categories currently available to Bolivia.

For Priority Mail International parcels already deposited, Post Office employees must endorse them “Mail Service Temporarily Suspended — Return to Sender” and then place them in the mailstream for return. The Postal Service[™] will refund postage and fees on mail returned due to the suspension of service, provided that the customer files an application in accordance with IMM 941 and 943.

Handbook EL-312 Revision: Medical Suitability

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission states that an employer who relies on a medical assessment to determine an applicant's medical suitability must engage in an individualized medical assessment with the applicant to determine whether the applicant is able to perform the position's essential functions. The assessment includes determining:

1. Whether the applicant can perform the essential functions of the position without posing a direct threat to the safety of the applicant or others, and
2. Whether that threat could be eliminated or reduced by reasonable accommodation.

When medical restrictions or limitations are identified, the Postal Service™ follows the interactive process described in Handbook EL-307, Reasonable Accommodation, An Interactive Process, to make a medical suitability decision.

Changes to Handbook EL-312, effective March 13, 2008, are described below.

Explanation of Changes

Part 571. Clarifies that a medical assessment is conducted only after an applicant is selected and given a conditional offer of employment. Aligns the explanation with the Rehabilitation Act to describe that the medical assessment is used to determine suitability to perform the functions of a particular position. Changes the format of explanations of situations that require a medical assessment to improve readability.

Part 574. Clarifies that a medical assessment is conducted only after an applicant is selected and given a conditional offer of employment. Clarifies that the appointing official makes the suitability decision in order to determine eligibility to appoint or place. Reorganizes text from 574 into new 574, 574.1, and 574.2.

Section 574.1. Moves some text formerly in 574 to this section. Adds text to explain that an individualized assessment is made to determine whether the applicant is able to perform a position's essential functions without posing a direct threat to the safety of the applicant or others. Adds the role of the Reasonable Accommodation Committee (RAC) to assist the appointing official in reaching a medical suitability decision.

Section 574.2. Moves some text formerly in 574 to this section. Clarifies that decision of medical suitability can also lead to a placement action.

The remaining sections of 574 are renumbered and the text is not changed, but the title of 541.42 is changed.

* * * * *

57 Medical Suitability

* * * * *

571 Policy

[Revise the text of 571 to read as follows:]

A medical assessment is administered only after an applicant is selected and a conditional offer of employment extended. To determine medical suitability to perform the functions of a particular position, a medical assessment is mandatory for all:

- a. Career and noncareer appointments.
- b. Employees applying for positions that have more demanding physical requirements than the employee's present position.

* * * * *

[Revise the title and text of 574 to read as follows:]

574 Appointment and Placement Decisions

Once the bona fide job offer is extended and the medical assessment conducted, the appointing official must give careful consideration to the results from the medical assessment and the applicants' ability to perform the essential functions of the position with or without reasonable accommodation. When the appointing official determines that the applicant is medically suitable, the applicant is appointed or placed.

[Renumber current 574.3 through 574.5 as new 574.41 through 574.43 and current 574.1 and 574.2 as new 574.3 and 574.4. Add new 574.1 and 574.2 to read as follows:]

574.1 Consideration of Limitations

When limitations or restrictions are identified during the medical assessment, appointing officials must follow the interactive process described in Handbook EL-307, Reasonable Accommodation, An Interactive Process, to make the appropriate medical suitability decision. When limitations are reported in the medical assessment, appointing officials should verify that the assessment was based on accurate job information and contact the selecting official to determine whether the restrictions would permit safe performance of the job, with or without reasonable accommodation. An appointing official performs an evaluation of the findings to determine whether the applicant is able to perform the position’s essential functions without posing a direct threat to the safety of the applicant or others.

Appointing officials must not use limitations or restrictions to automatically determine that an applicant is medically unsuitable. If the appointing official concludes that limitations may not permit safe performance of the job, the applicant is referred to the Reasonable Accommodation Committee (RAC) for an individualized analysis and to provide a recommendation to the appointing official. The appointing official weighs the RAC recommendation and evaluates the objective reasonableness of the findings in light of the duties of the position, the applicant’s work history, and potential accommodation.

574.2 Notification of Medical Suitability Decision

When the appointing official determines that the applicant is medically suitable, with or without reasonable accommodation, the applicant is notified and the appointment or placement is made. If the appointing official makes a determination not to appoint because of medical unsuitability, the applicant is advised of this final decision in writing. See Appendix A-7.

Publication 51 Revision: Bolivia – Service Suspension

Effective March 15, 2008, we are revising Publication 51, International Postal Rates and Fees, to reflect that Priority Mail International™ parcel service to Bolivia is suspended due to lack of available air transportation.

Until further notice, Post Offices™ must not accept Priority Mail International parcels destined to Bolivia. This suspension is applicable only to Priority Mail International parcels and does not include the Priority Mail International Flat-Rate Envelope or other international mail categories currently available to Bolivia.

For Priority Mail International parcels already deposited, Post Office employees must endorse them “Mail Service Temporarily Suspended – Return to Sender” and then place them in the mailstream for return. The Postal Service™ will refund postage and fees on mail returned due to the suspension of service, provided that the customer files an application in accordance with Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, International Mail Manual (IMM®) 941 and 943.

Publication 91 Revision: Changes to ZIP Code Identifier for Concatenated Bar Codes

Effective March 13, 2008, Publication 91, Confirmation Services Technical Guide (dated September 2004 and updated with Postal Bulletin revisions through January 20, 2005) is revised to change parsing requirements for the human-readable bar code. This change will allow both mailers and Postal Service™ personnel to more easily identify the routing ZIP™ Code on bar code labels.

Publication 91, Confirmation Services Technical Guide

* * * * *

4 Labels and Bar Codes

* * * * *

Bar Code Identification Format

* * * * *

Parsing

[Revise the section on parsing (currently one paragraph) to read as follows:]

For labels with only a Package Identification Code (PIC), there are no changes. The human-readable representation of the bar code must be parsed into groups of four with any remaining digits grouped at the end.

Example (PIC):

9101 0268 3733 1000 0395 21

For a concatenated bar code (which has a PIC and a Postal Routing Code), the parsing allows easy visibility of the Postal Service routing code and is used as follows: The first group is the 3-digit “420” Application Identifier, followed by a space; the second group is the 5-digit Postal Service routing code, followed by a space; the third group is the 4-digit ZIP+4® (if used), followed by a space; and the remaining human-readable numbers are parsed in groups of four, with any remaining digits grouped at the end.

Example (concatenated bar code):

420 22153 9101 0268 3733 1000 0395 21

For a concatenated bar code, all elements of the bar code must be displayed in human-readable text below the bar code. For current and future automated mail processing purposes, the Postal Service prefers that all mailers include a routing ZIP Code on their package labels and also prefers the use of a concatenated bar code format. (Postal Service routing codes are required for Standard Mail and Package Services parcel bar codes.)

* * * * *

ZIP Identifier for Concatenated Bar Codes

* * * * *

[In the images of the two options for the bar codes, revise the human-readable text underneath the bar codes to reflect the parsing change — i.e., the first eight numbers should read “420 20260” (rather than “4202 0260”). The following image shows the revisions.]

Notices

Notice 174, Don't Be the Victim of a Check Scam!

In collaboration with financial institutions, consumer advocacy groups, and certain businesses, the U.S. Postal Inspection Service formed the Alliance for Consumer Fraud Awareness in January 2007 to educate consumers about fake check scams targeting Americans from overseas.

In October 2007, the Alliance launched a consumer education campaign that included a series of television, print, and online advertisements. One print ad featured an early version of Notice 174, Don't Be the Victim of a Check Scam! Just in time for National Consumer Protection Week, held this year from March 3 through 7, 2008, the notice is available from the Material Distribution Center (MDC) in Topeka, KS, through the touch-tone order entry (TTOE) system at 800-273-1509.

Note: You must be registered to use TTOE. To register, call 800-332-0317, option 1, extension 2925, and follow the prompts to leave a message. (Wait 48 hours after registering before placing your first order.)

Don't Be the Victim of a Check Scam!

You receive a check or money order. The sender asks you to deposit the check or money order into your account and then wire-transfer him or her the money — minus a nice bonus as a "thank you" for helping out.

Should You Wire Money to a Stranger?

U.S. Postal Inspectors hope you say: Absolutely not! The offer may sound like a nice deal, but — as usual — it's just too good to be true. The check you receive will be counterfeit. And you'll be out the money.

How Does the Check Scam Work?

The "pitch" stays the same, but it appears in the following typical disguises:

- You're overpaid for an item you sold on the Internet and are asked to wire-transfer back the extra dollars.
- You receive a check and notification that you've won a foreign lottery or sweepstakes. You're told to deposit the check, representing a portion of your winnings, and wire-transfer $2,000 to $5,000 back "to cover the taxes" so you can collect the rest of your winnings.
- You receive a work-at-home offer that promises, in return for depositing a money order or check to your bank account, you can keep a percentage of the money after wire-transferring the rest.
- Someone in a chat room asks you for a favor: Just cash a check and wire-transfer back the money.

Regardless of the Pitch, the Result Is the Same

The check or money order you receive for deposit will be a counterfeit. It will be returned to your bank unpaid, and the full amount will be deducted from your account.

Who Is Responsible for Losses to Your Account?

You are responsible for any check or money order you deposit to your account. If the check or money order turns out to be counterfeit, or is returned unpaid for any reason, you are fully responsible for the loss.

Why Did the Bank Allow You to Withdraw the Money?

Federal law requires banks to make deposited funds available within 1 to 5 business days. Just because you can withdraw cash from your account soon after depositing a check or money order doesn't mean the item you deposited is valid. It can be weeks before a check or money order is discovered to be counterfeit and returned to your bank unpaid.

Why Didn't the Bank Know the Check Was Bad?

Bank employees may not be able to determine whether an item is invalid. Their job is to process your financial document.

If you believe you've been victimized by a fraudster, contact your nearest Postal Inspection Service office by calling 877-876-2455. To learn more about common consumer scams, visit the following websites:

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international postal money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
 - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
 - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word “USPS” repeated.
 - There should be no discoloration around the dollar amounts, which might indicate the amounts were changes.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at <http://www.usps.com/missingmoneyorders/security.htm>.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Order Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Please provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Other Information

Overseas Military Mail

Mail addressed to military post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO table below outlines these conditions by APO/FPO ZIP Codes™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks should use the table with the integrated retail terminal (IRT) or POS ONE terminal to determine which APO/FPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply. Acceptance clerks may contact the Military Postal Service Agency with any questions regarding APO/FPO ZIP Codes, toll free, at 800-810-6098, Monday-Friday, 0730–1600 ET.

For Express Mail Military Service (EMMS) availability, all acceptance clerks must refer to the local hardcopy EMMS directory.

Missing Children Poster Display Instructions

Post Offices, classified stations, branches, and contract postal units may display this poster at their option. If the poster is displayed, it should be placed on the community bulletin board located in the Post Office™ box lobby and not in the main retail (full service) lobby. Alternatively, Missing Children posters can be maintained in a binder behind the counter to be used as a reference guide. The posters also may be posted in a prominent location where letter carriers will be able to see them before or after they go out of their routes. Making this information available to letter carriers is consistent with the NALC/USPS Child Alert Program to facilitate identification of missing children.

Companion posters, authorized for display on bulletin boards maintained by employee organizations, appear periodically in The Postal Record, a publication for members of the National Association of Letter Carriers.

This poster is published in cooperation with the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, the United States Department of Justice, and the National Association of Letter Carriers. Information appearing on this poster is selected solely by the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC).

In addition to Postal Bulletin updates, NCMEC distributes information periodically. Notification of newly reported missing children is sent to designated district “Missing Children” coordinators via e-mail addresses provided by district managers. Within 24 hours of receipt of an e-mailed Missing Children poster, district coordinators should distribute copies to all Postal Service™ facilities in their districts. Missing Children posters are to be displayed as noted above for 30 days unless notification is received (from NCMEC) to remove a particular poster sooner. The e-mail network is used to distribute posters and information in only the most urgent cases of missing children. This system supplements, but does not replace, the missing children information in this Postal Bulletin.

Missing Children posters are available to the U.S. Postal Service® only as described above. If Postal Service employees are contacted by individuals or local agencies about displaying a sign or poster of a missing child in local Post Offices, the individual or agency should be politely informed that the U.S. Postal Service displays only those posters provided by NCMEC, because it has been designated by the U.S. Department of Justice to be the national clearinghouse and resource center for missing and exploited children. The individual or agency should then be referred to NCMEC at 800-843-5678.

If you have any information, or for free prevention tips, please call 800-THE-LOST (800-843-5678).

Requests for Filming and Still Photography on Postal Service Premises

Many Post Office™ facilities receive requests from individuals and non-news organizations to film or take photographs on Postal Service™ premises. Non-news organizations may include but are not limited to the following:

- Entertainment companies.
- Students.
- Professional photographers.
- Documentary film-makers.
- Advertising agencies and non-profit organizations.

Administrative Support Manual (ASM) subchapter 66 was recently revised through the article titled “ASM Revision: Responsibility for Licensing and Rights and Permissions Moves to Product Development” in Postal Bulletin 22214 (8-30-07, pages 5–8) to specify that all such requests (aside from news reporting) should be directed to the Office of Rights and Permissions. (Note: These ASM requirements do not apply to Postal Service employees who take photographs and film for official Postal Service business.) To see the revised ASM section, access the online ASM available on the Postal Service PolicyNet Web site:

- Go to <http://blue.usps.gov>.
- Under “Essential Links” in the left-hand column, click on References.
- Click on Manuals.
- Click on Administrative Support Manual (ASM).

(The direct URL for the Postal Service PolicyNet Web site is <http://blue.usps.gov/cpim>.)

General policy for photography/filming on Postal Service premises may be found at Title 39 of the Code of Federal Regulations, section 232.1(i), and Postal Operations Manual (POM) Section 124.58, “Photographs for News, Advertising, or Commercial Purposes.” More detailed information appears below.

Requests From News Media for Reporting

All requests from qualified news reporting services to film or photograph on Postal Service premises must be referred to the local Public Affairs and Communications representative. Contact information is located on the Media Relations Web page at www.usps.com/communications/newsroom/mediacontacts.htm.

Photography and Filming for Personal Use

Informal snapshots from handheld cameras for personal use may be allowed at the postmaster’s discretion provided that there is no disruption to Postal Service operations and that the pictures are taken from areas accessible to the public. In these cases, no prior permission is required from the Office of Rights and Permissions; however, no lighting or scaffolding may be set up, and no picture can depict any Postal Service employee, customer, security camera, or cover of mail (i.e., the exterior of a mail-piece, which would show customer name and address among other things). Postmasters may restrict any and all photography if they determine that it is disruptive or there are potential security concerns.

Professional Photographers and Film/TV Production Companies

People who request to take professional-grade photographs or film on Postal Service premises must be referred to the Office of Rights and Permissions, and they will be required to sign a license and/or location agreement prior to taking any photographs or filming. Included in this category are documentary and student film-makers and photographers.

Quick Tips

Here are a few examples of requests that must be directed to the Office of Rights and Permissions:

- A request to use the images of historic murals for commercial purposes. (Commercial uses may include reproductions of the murals in books or on posters, fine art prints, greeting cards, stationery, postcards, clothing, or other merchandising items such as magnets, coffee mugs, or other materials for resale.)
- A request that requires the set up of equipment aside from the camera itself (e.g., a tripod, ladder, lighting, or scaffolding).
- A request to use a high-resolution, professional-grade camera.
- A request to film from an area not accessible to the public.

When a Request for Professional Photography/Filming Is Received

Approval of all requests is coordinated between local postmasters/PAC field employees and Headquarters. Any request must be approved by both groups. In addition to referring requests to the Office of Rights and Permissions, the postmaster must notify the Public Affairs and Communications area representative.

Postmasters can deny any request for professional filming/photography if they determine that the photography and/or filming will cause too much disruption. If a postmaster denies the request, a Rights and Permissions application does not need to be completed.

Notice

Because a location agreement involves coordination with numerous stakeholders, at least 2-weeks' advance notice is requested whenever possible. While the Office of Rights and Permissions will make every effort to accommodate last-minute requests to photograph/film, it cannot under any circumstances accommodate requests made with less than 48 hours notice.

Once a license or location agreement has been signed by both the Postal Service and the requester, access can be granted to film or photograph on the premises as specified under the terms of the agreement.

For more information, contact the Office of Rights and Permissions at permissions@usps.gov. More information about the Rights and Permission program is also available at www.usps.com/rightsandpermissions.

Correction: Today's Mail Needs USPS.com Fact Sheets

In the article "Today's Mail Needs USPS.com" in Postal Bulletin 22227 (2-28-08, pages 5–14), two fact sheets on page 9 contained incorrect information. These two fact sheets are reprinted below with the corrected information in bold.

Fact Sheet: Pay Postage and Print Labels

Print shipping labels — and pay for postage via credit card — from the convenience of your home or office. Click-N-Ship[®] service (www.usps.com/clicknship) brings the Post Office[™] to your office. You can print labels for domestic and international expedited services — Priority Mail[®], Express Mail[®], Express Mail International[®], Priority Mail International[™], and Global Express Guaranteed[®] (GXG[®]). As an added benefit, you get free Delivery Confirmation[™] service with every Priority Mail label you print, and Express Mail labels include signature proof of delivery. Signature Confirmation[™] service is available for a small fee. Purchase USPS[®] insurance online to insure your domestic and international shipments. Get shipping supplies online from The Postal Store[®] at no cost. No monthly fee is required to print labels or postage using Click-N-Ship service.

Do you need a complete mailing and shipping solution? Are you shipping higher mail volumes? Are you shipping multiple packages frequently? Then check out the approved PC Postage[®] product vendors at www.usps.com/onlinepostage. With PC Postage software, you can purchase postage over the Internet and use your standard desktop printer to print the PC Postage indicia directly onto envelopes or labels for your letters or packages.

Mailing is as convenient as your neighborhood mailbox. You can drop your domestic Express Mail and Priority Mail pieces with PC Postage indicia in any Postal Service collection box, take them to your local Post Office, hand them to your carrier, or schedule a pickup online. However, packages that weigh over 13 ounces and only bear postage stamps as postage must be taken to a retail service counter at a Post Office for mailing. International mail packages bearing online postage may be left for pickup by your mail carrier, but you cannot deposit them into a street letter collection box.

Fact Sheet: Request Package Pickup

USPS.com provides you with two options at www.usps.com/pickup to have your Priority Mail, Express Mail, and international services packages picked up by a carrier. These options are Carrier Pickup[™] service and Pickup on Demand[®] service. Just prepare your packages for shipping — including postage — and go online to request package pickup. Note: packages weighing over 13 ounces bearing only postage stamps as postage must be taken to a retail service counter at a Post Office for mailing. Use Carrier Pickup service to have your carrier pick up packages at no extra charge during normal mail delivery anytime from the next day to up to 3 months in advance. If you need your packages picked up sooner, use Pickup on Demand service — the pickup is usually made within 2 hours of the request for only $14.25 per pickup, regardless of the number of packages. You can also use Pickup on Demand service to request a pickup within a scheduled time frame (rather than during normal mail delivery) up to 6 days in advance.

MarketingMatters — At a Glance: We Deliver Your Tax Dollars, We Don't Spend Them!

April 15 — Tax Day — is almost here. While you might not feel like celebrating this particular date on the calendar, we hope you will take some comfort in the fact that the Postal Service™ is here to deliver your tax dollars — not spend them.

Postal Service operations are financed solely by the sale of its products and services. The only government funds the Postal Service receives are reimbursements by Congress to provide free mail for the blind and to keep certain postage prices for nonprofit and other qualifying organizations below cost.

So when you finish filling out your tax forms this year and make your payment to the United States Treasury, remember: The Postal Service is here to deliver your tax dollars, not spend them.

And if you're fortunate enough to be owed a tax refund, the Postal Service can also deliver that to you — putting tax dollars into your pocket, not taking them out of it!

Official Election Mail — Publications 631 and 632 Revised

Publication 631, Official Election Mail: Graphic Guidelines and Logos, and Publication 632, State and Local Election Mail — User's Guide, have been revised and are available on the Postal Service™ Internet:

- Go to www.usps.com.
- Click on All Products & Services, then Publications, then Postal Periodicals and Publications, then Publications, and then on the links for Publication 631 or 632.

Publication 631

Publication 631 provides detailed information on the print and color specifications for using the Official Election Mail Logo. The logo is a trademark image that may be used only by election officials, and its use must comply with the design specifications in Publication 631. The logo may be used on any mailpiece that is created by an election official and that is mailed to or from a citizen of the United States for the purpose of participating in the voting process. Such mailpieces include balloting materials, voter registration cards, absentee applications, polling place notifications, and voter reply mail.

The Postal Service encourages election officials to use the logo on their official election mail materials. Use of the Official Election Mail Logo helps recipients recognize a mailpiece as important and distinct from other partisan political mail. The logo also serves to identify official election mail to Postal Service workers and distinguish it from the thousands of other mailpieces that are processed daily. However, use of the logo is not intended to upgrade the level of service paid for or to substitute for required postage.

Publication 632

Publication 632 is designed to help election officials make decisions involving mailpiece design, address lists, classes of mail, options for reply mail, and postage discounts. The Postal Service recommends that election officials work with the local mailpiece design analyst (MDA) to ensure mailpiece quality and to avoid potential preparation problems. Publication 632 also includes a checklist to help election officials achieve a successful mailing.

Additional Information

If local election officials seek additional information on election mail, direct them to the Election Officials' Mailing Resources Web site at www.usps.com/electionmail.

Stamp Announcement 08-05: Flags 24/7

Copyright USPS 2008

On April 18, 2008, in Washington, DC, the Postal Service™ will issue 42-cent, definitive stamps, Flags 24/7, in four designs. These stamps will be available in the following formats:

- Pressure-sensitive adhesive (PSA) coil of 100 (Item 785900).
- PSA coil of 3,000 (Item 786000).
- PSA coil of 10,000 (Item 786100).
- Water-activated gum (WAG) coil of 3,000 (Item 786800).

The stamps, designed by Phil Jordan of Falls Church, Virginia, go on sale nationwide April 18, 2008.

Each of the four First-Class® stamps features a painting by Laura Stutzman of Mountain Lake Park, Maryland, of an American flag flying at a different time of day: sunrise, noon, sunset, and night.

In 1942, Congress passed a resolution establishing a code of flag etiquette. The code states in part that the American flag should be displayed from sunrise to sunset every day, weather permitting, but especially on days of national importance like Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, and Veterans Day. Congress also decided that “when a patriotic effect is desired,” the flag can be flown through the night if properly lit. Although compliance is voluntary, public observation of the code’s measures is widespread throughout the nation.

Updated Announcement 08-B: 2008 Stamps and Postal Stationery

“2008 Stamps and Postal Stationery” (Updated Announcement 08-B, March 2008), which appears on pages 54–55, replaces the quarterly announcement of the same name, previously printed and sent to customers on request through Stamp Fulfillment Services in Kansas City. The announcement is a listing of stamps and postal stationery items scheduled for issuance during calendar year 2008. Postmasters may wish to post this schedule on their Post Office™ bulletin boards.

Customers may also access the Postal Bulletin through the Postal Service™ Web site at www.usps.com; click on About USPS & News, then Forms & Publications, then Postal Bulletin.

This announcement will be updated every 2 to 3 months, as changes warrant.

How to Order First Day of Issue Postmarks and Covers

Customers may purchase new stamps or postal stationery items at their Post Office, from the USA Philatelic catalog, by calling 800-STAMP-24, or online at www.usps.com by clicking on Buy Stamps & Shop. Then they should prepare their own covers by affixing new stamps to the upper-right corner of envelopes or postcards of their choice, and address those envelopes, postcards, or postal stationery items to themselves or others. (Postage must equal the current First-Class Mail® rate.) For sturdiness, include a card of postcard thickness in each cover (envelopes only) submitted, and tuck in the flap. Place the cover in a larger envelope addressed to:

NAME OF ISSUE
POSTMASTER
CITY STATE ZIP CODE (FOLLOWED BY -9991)

Covers submitted for first day of issue postmarks may include additional uncanceled stamps only if the uncanceled stamps were issued before the first day of issue of the new stamps or postal stationery items. All orders must be postmarked on or before the deadline indicated in the “2008 Stamps and Postal Stationery” announcement on pages 54–55.

Pictorial Postmarks Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service™ offers pictorial postmarks to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears below. If available, the sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of those postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. Pictorial postmarks are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial postmark date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail® postage. Items submitted for postmark may not include postage issued after the date of the requested postmark. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a postmark should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: PICTORIAL POSTMARKS, followed by the NAME OF THE STATION, ADDRESS, CITY, STATE, ZIP+4® CODE, exactly as listed below (using all capitals and no punctuation, except the hyphen in the ZIP+4 code).

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for postmark, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. After applying the pictorial postmark, the Postal Service returns the items (with or without addresses) under addressed protective cover.

How to Order the First Day of Issue Digital Color or Traditional Postmarks

Customers have 60 days to obtain the first day of issue postmarks by mail. They may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, by telephone at 800-STAMP-24, or at The Postal Store® Web site at www.usps.com/shop.

Traditional Postmarks

Customers should affix the stamps to envelopes of their choice, address them to themselves or others, or provide a self-addressed return envelope with sufficient postage large enough to accommodate the canceled item. Mail the request to the corresponding city of issuance. There is no charge for the first 50 postmarks. There is a 5-cent charge for each additional postmark over 50. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment. After applying the first day of issue postmark, the Postal Service™ will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.

All postmark requests should go to the first day of issue city. The first day of issue city Post Office will then forward in bulk all postmark requests to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, P.O. Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992 by respective Post Offices.

Digital Color Postmarks

Only select stamp issues offer a digital color postmark. Customers may submit #6 or #10 envelopes constructed of paper rated as “laser safe.” The Postal Service recommends envelopes of 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free, 9/16" side seams with no glue on the flap. The maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2" high x 4" long. Allow sufficient space on the envelope to accommodate the postmark and do not use self-adhesive labels for addresses on the envelope. Two test envelopes must be included. There is a minimum of 10 envelopes at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment.

The Postal Service reserves the right to not accept hand-painted and other cachet envelopes that are not compatible with our digital color postmark equipment. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of non-specified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

Customers should affix the stamps to the envelopes and address them to themselves or others for return through the mail. Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of their postmarked items. Mail the request for a first day of issue digital color postmark to the corresponding city of issuance. Post Offices will then forward all customer requests for digital color postmarks to: Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, P.O. Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992.

After applying the first day of issue postmark, the Postal Service will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.

Safety

Use Snow Removal Equipment Wisely

The Consumer Product Safety Commission says that each winter there are about 6,000 serious injuries associated with snow blowers, including hundreds of finger amputations. This winter, a Postal Service™ employee was seriously injured while using a snow blower.

Most injuries happen when people try to clear snow from the discharge chute with their hands. If you're using a snow blower this winter, follow these safety tips:

Check equipment, such as snow blowers, before use to make sure it is functioning properly and that safety guards are in place.

Do not test gasoline-powered equipment indoors because of the danger of carbon monoxide poisoning.

Do a thorough walk-around inspection of plows and other mobile equipment to check for damage or safety issues, and to be sure there are no obstructions in the machinery's path.

Keep people away from the area where you start or operate the machine. Shift into neutral and make sure all clutches are disengaged before starting the engine.

When using snow blowers or walk-behind snowplows, move carefully so you do not slip, and keep a firm hold on the machine. To prevent entanglement or being struck by objects propelled by the blades, stay away from the discharge opening and make sure others stand clear.

Never put your hand in any part of the equipment while the machine is running. First turn off the engine, wait for all moving parts to stop, then unplug the spark plug. Use a tool, never your fingers or hands, to remove any snow or ice buildup.

Supply Management

Nonmail Freight Shipment Refusals and Damage

Handbook AS-701, Material Management, states that trained “designated receiving personnel” are required to not refuse delivery of a freight shipment if it has arrived at the correct consignee address. For complete guidance, please reference sections 243.1, General Responsibilities, and 244.5, Basic Validation and Processing Procedures. Compliance with this procedure is required without exception. Any destination that does not comply will not only pay the inbound freight charge, but also a reshipment charge to the facility’s finance number.

Even if damaged, the shipment must be accepted and held for claims processing. Handbook AS-701 includes comprehensive guidance for documenting, reporting, and remedying damaged or discrepant freight shipments, as outlined in section 244.92. Within this section, receiving a shipment that is short or has visible damage is discussed in 244.921. Describing damage or loss on a receiving document is covered within 244.922. When possible, photographs of a damaged shipment should be taken and used to support a claim, as recommended in 244.923.
